Happy New Year! Today we begin a new liturgical year and new liturgical season as today we begin the Season of Advent. In the Season of Advent, we are called to prepare for the coming of Christ. At the end of this Season of Advent we anticipate the coming of Christ and celebrating the birth of Christ at Christmas.

We believe the coming of Christ to be a good thing, and we begin this season of preparing for Christ to come, in our scriptures today, we are instructed be ready for 'the unknown hour'. After Masses this weekend I plan to get away for a few days to go deer hunting. As I think of 'the unknown hour' it reminds me of deer hunting. Deer hunting requires a lot of quiet and waiting for that unknown hour for deer to come. Along with being quiet and waiting, you also need to be properly ready for deer to come. If you are not ready, then you miss out on getting a deer. Hopefully, I am properly ready and get a deer.

'The unknown hour' we hear about today might also be like a coming inspector that could come at any hour. An inspector that comes to make sure that you are doing everything right and if the inspector does not find things in proper order you could be shut down or lose your business.

Our scriptures today describe 'the unknown hour' is like a thief coming in the middle of the night. A thief coming in the middle of the night is not exactly what I think of when I think of the coming of Jesus. But if the church invites us to consider the coming of Jesus through the lens of a coming thief, let's look at the coming of Christ through this lens. How do you prepare for thief to come? Yes, you need to be vigilant, be ready for that hour when the thief comes, but that is not enough. I lived in cities and been to cities where thieves seem to be more prevalent and I have taken precautions by locking doors and I kept my valuables out of sight. But you also need to be smart when you encounter a thief. I am reminded of a time I got tricked. When Br. Jerry Schulte, C.P.P.S. was my formation director. We lived together at Gaspar House which is on the campus of Precious Blood Church in Dayton, Ohio. One day I was at the formation house all by myself, a homeless man came to the door looking for Br. Jerry. I answered the door and said that Br. Jerry was not here. Homeless man asked if he could come to talk, I invited him in and we sat down to talk. He preceded to tell me his story; he was down on his luck and needed money for him and his family to ride the bus. I told him I did not have any money to give but I could provide him with sandwiches for him and his family. That did work for him, so I said, 'you could try calling Br. Jerry on his cell phone for help'. The homeless man called Br. Jerry on his cell phone using our house phone. So, homeless man did and when Br. Jerry answered the phone and I was not on the other end Br. Jerry became worried and called the church janitor. The church janitor came and helped to get rid of the homeless man. When Br. Jerry returned, he told me it is good to help the homeless but not in our home.

As we begin the Season of Advent today and we hear the call to prepare for 'the unknown hour' how are we to prepare? Perhaps we are not called to do anything special. Because through every season of the year we called, to be prepared for 'the unknown hour'. But perhaps what Advent invites us to do is first assess how we are doing in preparing for 'the unknown hour'. Second, to tweak or adjust our lives to help ourselves to better prepare for 'the unknown hour'. What tweaking or adjusting do you need to be better ready for 'the unknown hour'?

Catechism Corner*ADVENT HOPE

As we draw close to the end of the Jubilee Year of Hope, let us reflect on Pope Benedict XVI words he wrote in an Encyclical in 2007 titled On Christian Hope: “We who have always lived with the Christian concept of God... have almost ceased to notice that we possess the hope that ensues from a real encounter with this God.” For Christians, hope is like water for fish—we live in it, forget it, and barely notice it, even while the world thirsts.

Advent is not just a countdown to Christmas. The church teaches that Advent is “a period of devout and expectant delight” (Universal Norms on the Liturgical Year and the General Roman Calendar, 39). Advent teaches us to live like people who expect something delightful to happen. Advent teaches us to hope.

What is hope? Hope is a theological virtue - a virtue that is given to us by God at our baptism. The Catechism (#1813) teaches that the theological virtues, along with faith and charity, are the foundation of Christian morality. They are infused by God into the souls of the faithful to make them capable of acting as his children and of meriting eternal life.

The virtue of hope is the virtue by which we desire the kingdom of heaven and eternal life as our happiness, placing our trust in Christ’s promises and relying not on our own strength, but on the help of the grace of the Holy Spirit. (CCC #1817)

Eighteen years after Pope Benedict wrote his encyclical on hope, Pope Francis declared this liturgical year as a Jubilee Year of Hope. The close of the 2025 Jubilee year overlaps with Advent—the season of hope. Advent is an ideal time to re-examine how we reflect the hope of Christ, both as individuals and as a parish community. In a broken world, it’s easy to not feel like a radiant beacon of hope. We fret too much and get discouraged; some days the mountains seem too heavy to move. But Sunday after Sunday, we re-learn that hope is something God gives freely. Even in our small acts of presence—listening, encouraging, simply being with someone—we are participating in God’s saving work and bringing hope into a world in need. Your journey this Advent, with all its struggles and small acts of faithfulness, is itself a sign of God’s hope for those you accompany in life.

The focus this first week of Advent is on the virtue of hope. The Church will light its first purple candle this week. This is the candle for hope. This candle is called the “Prophecy Candle”. The light of this candle symbolizes the hope of God’s people, who awaited the coming of the Messiah as prophesied in the Old Testament, and represents both the hope for Christ’s first arrival and the anticipation of his second coming. The readings this week give us hope that our just judge will make all things right. That our lives, lived in relationship to Christ’s, will result in the hope of the promised land. The liturgy this week reminds us of the hope that God’s promises are true and that He is faithful to fulfill them, which is not a passive hope but one that is fueled by God’s faithfulness.

This Advent, let others know by the way you live that hope is real, God is near, and Christ is coming to make all things new. Let us cling to our great Christian Hope that we are a part of the Kingdom of the Almighty God, a Kingdom that is eternal joy!

St. John the Baptist, Glandorf

St. John the Baptist Glandorf requirements:

All students must be enrolled in high school CCD before the first class for the beginning of school year to play. Students are expected to attend both the Fall and Winter Semesters of High School Religious Education (CCD) classes. Attendance at these classes will be monitored and reviewed. For each class missed beyond 3 classes the player will sit out one game per absence. Attendance resets at the end of the team's season for each respective sport.

The Eucharist is why our parish exists and it is the reason why you get the privilege to play on the parish team. Attendance at a Saturday evening or Sunday Mass at a Catholic Mass is required. We also ask you to come for one hour of Adoration during Eucharistic Sunday (generally the 3rd Sunday of Ordinary time).

Each player is asked to give 5 hours of service to St. John's parish during the year.

VOCATIONS TO PRIESTHOOD AND RELIGIOUS LIFE

Meeting Thursday, November 13, 2025

The Serra Club of Lima Area, which exists to promote and support vocations to priesthood and religious life, will be meeting Thursday November 13 at Lima Central Catholic High School. Mass will begin at 5:45PM followed by dinner and a program. This month's speaker will be Fr.

David Kidd, Director of the Office of Priestly Vocations for the Diocese of Toledo. Fr. Kidd will be speaking on "Inviting Young Men to Serve God's People." Persons who have an interest in this topic or the mission of the Serra Club are welcome to attend as guests. If interested in attending, please respond to Kathy at 419-303-0339 no later than Tuesday, November 11.

The Carey Ecuemical Choir will present its 51st Annual Christmas Concert on Sunday, December 14 at 4:00pm at the Basilica and National Shrine of Our Lady of Consolation.

Under the direction of Mr. Anthony Gallina, the Basilia's Director of Music Ministries, the choir will present a concert of sacred Advent and Christmas music. The choir this year has approximately 50 voices. A brass quintet and cello will accompany a few of the pieces. Some works include: "Prepare!" by Joseph M. Martin, "O Come, Emmanuel" by Elaine Hagenberg, "Go Tell it on the Mountain" by Philip Kern, "O Nata Lux" by Douglas Byler, and "O Holy Night" by René Clausen. There is no cost to attend the concert, although a freewill offering will be taken up about halfway through the evening of music. Following the concert, all are invited to a reception in the basilica's Shrine Cafeteria.

The Carey Ecuemical Choir was founded in 1971 as a collaboration between John Raymaley, Ronald Croy, James Roynon, and Brother Paul Faroh, OFM Conv. The choir has held a Christmas concert each year since, with the exception being in 1984 when no director could be secured. There was also a three year hiatus from 2020-2022 due to COVID and no director of music at Our Lady of Consolation. In 1988 and 2025, the choir also performed a spring concert for special jubilee years at the basilica. In past years, the group has been featured on WBGU and Channel 13 as well as a taped Christmas Mass for the Diocese of Toledo. Membership each year in the choir has ranged from 50 all the way to 130 in the late 1990s.

OCIA

Order of Christian
Initiation of Adults

The Journey of Faith

OCIA is a process to introduce non-Catholics, or non-Christians to Christ and the teachings of the Catholic Church. The goal is to lead others into a personal relationship with Christ and a conversion of heart from a life of sin to a life of grace. We assist them in being fully initiated into the Church - if Christ leads them down this path. Inquirers can start at any time throughout the year, whenever God is calling.

It's Time to get Ready for Christmas!

Advent is here! In a few weeks it will be Christmas, so it's time to start getting ready!

During Advent we remember Jesus' first coming, and get ourselves and our homes ready to celebrate His birthday.

Lighting the candles on an Advent wreath helps us to remember that Jesus, the light of the world, is coming. We start with one candle, and every week light one more, so that the closer we get to Jesus' coming the brighter it gets.

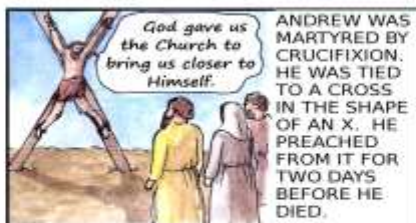

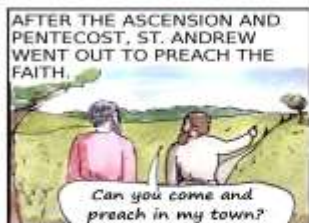

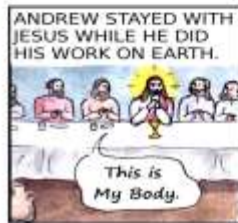

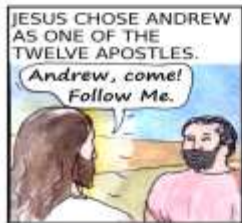

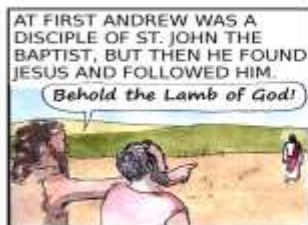

In Advent we also think about Jesus' second coming. In today's Gospel reading Jesus tells the people to be prepared for that time. We must never let ourselves forget that this world and this life are only temporary and that we have something much greater to look forward to: Jesus and Heaven!

Answer to puzzle on front page: armor of light!

SAINT ANDREW NOVEMBER 30

WE DON'T KNOW VERY MUCH ABOUT THE LIFE OF ST. ANDREW EXCEPT THAT HE WAS A FAITHFUL APOSTLE OF JESUS AND ONE OF THE FIRST MISSIONARIES OF THE CHURCH. HE BEGAN AS A POOR FISHERMAN. WE CAN LEARN FROM HIS STORY THAT JESUS CALLS US ALL TO BE SAINTS, NO MATTER WHERE WE'RE FROM.

In those days  the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day that Noah

They did not know until the flood came and  them all away.

So will it be also at the coming of the Son of Man.

Therefore,  awake!
