2 FROM THE DESK OF DEACON DON

www.stjohnglandorf.org

The disciples do not get it.

Jesus teaches the disciples in our scriptures today that “The Son of Man is to be handed over to men and they will kill him, and three days after his death the Son of Man will rise” (Mark 9:31). It appears the disciples were not paying attention to what Jesus was trying to teach the disciples we hear they were debating who is the greatest. Perhaps the disciples did not say anything because they just did not get it and were afraid to question Jesus because they did not want to get rebuked the way Peter was. If you recall last week when Jesus spoke a similar message to them for the first time of his coming death, Peter rebuked Jesus and then Jesus and Peter rebuked telling him to “Get behind me, Satan” (Mark 8:33). Or perhaps, it is just that disciples did not get it, and they did not know how to respond to Jesus, so they did not say anything. Regardless of what the reason was the point remains the same the disciples did not get it. In Mark’s Gospel there is going to be a third time were Jesus is going to have a similar again the disciples will not get it. The disciples do not get it, and Jesus did not give up on the disciples.

The fact that Jesus did not give up on the disciples and that Jesus continued to work with disciples I think is the good news. Because sometimes we do not understand the message that Jesus is trying to teach us, we do not get it and just like the disciples in our scriptures today Jesus continues to work with us.

Jesus did not give up on the disciples on what he was trying to teach the disciples, a matter of a fact Jesus met them where they were. The disciples were discussing who among them was the greatest. Jesus tells them “If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all” (Mark 9:35). Jesus meeting the disciples where they were, lends itself to Jesus original teaching that the Son of Man is to be handed over. Jesus the Son of Man suffered, was killed, and rose from dead also was the greatest and served. Which begs us to ask what are those lessons that Jesus is trying to teach us that we are not getting?

There are several lessons that the Lord is trying to teach me, some of those lessons I am not aware of and do not get it, other lessons I am learning, and I need to be reminded of the lesson, and some lessons the Lord has my attention. Regardless of the lesson the Lord continues to work with me. I meet with my spiritual director about once a month, and I usually start the meeting by talking about sequence of events that happened in my life since the last time we met. And usually at the end of my sharing my spiritual director asks, “what is God saying to you?” Or “where do you see God working?” Almost every time I need to stop and think about it before I answer. God is teaching and working me and you in our lives what is it that God is saying to you that you need to pay attention to?

INITIATION OF ADULTS INTO THE CATHOLIC FAITH (RCIA/OCIA)

Is a journey through which interested adults and older children are welcomed and gradually introduced to the Roman Catholic Faith, Sacraments, Worship and way of life. In response to their inquiries, these people are properly instructed so that you can discern (through reflection and prayer) whether you are indeed called to Catholicism. If you would like more information or want to register please contact the Parish Office. The next session will start in the fall.

CATECHISM CORNER

Each week at Holy Mass we profess our belief in reciting the Nicene Creed. What does it mean when we say we believe in these statements/truths? We will take a look at each statement/truth of the creed and examine it's meaning through the use of the Faith and Life Series by Ignatius Press that is utilized in our parish religious education morning program, 5th Grade curriculum. For more information on this program, visit <https://loc.ignatius.com/faithandlife/>

“By the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary” “For he has made known to us in all wisdom and insight the mystery of his will, according to his purpose which he set forth in Christ as a plan for the fullness of time, to unite all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth.” (Ephesians 1:9-10)

God prepared his chosen people for the Savior. The Blessed Virgin Mary was chosen by God to be the Mother of Jesus, who redeemed the world.

Before Jesus would come into the world, his cousin John, would be conceived to his aged parents, Zechariah and Elizabeth. They had been unable to conceive a child and in their old age did not think it would ever be possible. But, when Zechariah, a priest, was serving in the temple the Angel Gabriel appeared to him and promised him that his wife would bear a son. They were to name him John. Zechariah didn't believe in this message and was made temporarily mute. But, just as the angel announced, Elizabeth did conceive and bear a son.

After the birth of their son, relatives expected the couple to name their son after Zechariah. But now that the message was fulfilled, Zechariah had faith and wrote on a tablet that the child would be named “John”. At that moment, God freed his tongue and he was able to speak again!

The same Angel Gabriel appeared to the virgin Mary. He hailed her, telling her that she would conceive and bear a son, the “Son of the Most High.” (Lk 1:32). Not being married, Mary asked him how this would be possible and he told her she would conceive by the Holy Spirit. She replied, “Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord; let it be to me according to your word.” (Lk 1:38)

Angel Gabriel told Mary all things are possible with God for her cousin, Elizabeth had conceived a child in her old age as well. In haste, Mary traveled to see her cousin, Elizabeth. At the sound of Mary's greeting, the child within the womb of Elizabeth “lept”. (Lk 1: 41) Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit and asked, “Why is this granted me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?...Blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her from the Lord.” (Lk 1:43, 45)

In order for Mary to be an appropriate vessel for the Son of God to enter into the world, God preserved her from Original Sin so that she also was sinless. We know this as the Immaculate Conception. “Immaculate” means perfect, and “conception” refers to Mary's beginning in her mother's womb: she was perfect from the first moment of her existence.

The Catholic Church declared the truth of the Immaculate Conception on December 8, 1854, but this does not mean the teaching was a new idea then. When the Catholic Church declared it as a “dogma”, it was saying it is a truth to believe as it was divinely inspired.

6 PRAY FOR PRIESTLY VOCATIONS

PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY

September 29, 2024

A VOCATION MUST BE NURTURED

For a lifetime, not just until ordination or the taking of vows. You can help nurture the vocations of priests by praying, listening, and expressing appreciation. A life of service needs support from those served.

Please honor Priests, especially Fr. Matt on this special day.

A Prayer for Vocations

God, who chose the apostles to make disciples of all nations and who by baptism and confirmation have called us to build up your Holy Church, we implore you to choose among us, your children, many priests and religious who will love you with their whole hearts and will gladly spend their lives making you known and loved by all. Through Christ our Lord.

Amen

7 A NOTE FROM DEACON ERIC KAUFMAN

+ Gloria Patri, et Filio, et Spiritui Sancto

(September 2024)

WOW! What a fantastic summer! But first, thank you for all of your love, prayers, and support for all priests, religious, seminarians, and me. Please know all of you are in my prayers.

Again, these last several months have been incredible, with the highlight being my ordination to the diaconate and preaching back at home in Glandorf last May. Thank you again for everything. It was an amazing weekend seeing so many loved ones, parishioners, and friends that I have met over my whole life, especially over these last several years as a seminarian. I truly felt your love, and I will always be grateful.

After ordination, I was assigned to St. Joan of Arc parish in Toledo for the summer, where I did my pastoral internship. It was a wonderful blessing that I was assigned to serve there again, this time as a deacon. From celebrating baptism, leading benediction, and assisting and preaching at Mass, there were many incredible experiences.

At different times over the summer, I had opportunities to do some traveling: from Sedona/Grand Canyon in Arizona to being part of a group from Glandorf, Ohio, traveling to Glandorf, Germany, as they celebrated 950 years of recorded history, to Indianapolis, Indiana for the 10th National Eucharistic Congress. Each trip was a blessing, from having some quiet time with one group of friends to reuniting with another group of friends across the ocean to growing my friendship with our Eucharistic Lord. I loved them all!

I made many great memories throughout the summer, but being at the Eucharistic Congress was a top experience. Witnessing 60,000 Catholics gather to celebrate and learn more about our Eucharistic Lord. WOW! From the four opening Eucharistic processions that came from all across the entire U.S.A. to the outstanding speakers, parade/procession through the city streets, to the fantastic closing Mass. Jesus was the superstar we were all there to see. If you can, please watch the main speakers online. The next National Eucharistic Congress is being planned for 2033 (2,000 years since the Resurrection and birth of the Church).

Since returning from the Eucharistic Congress, I have been asked what my favorite part was, and if I had to pick, I would have to narrow it down to the procession through the city and the closing Mass. My reason is that it was at these two events that the whole body of the Church really came into view. From the tens of thousands of lay faithful to the 1,500+ religious sisters and brothers (the vast majority were young and in their habits), to 500+ seminarians, 400+ deacons, 1,000+ priests, 130+ bishops, and the head of the body, Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. The Church is truly LIVING!

- Do we see Jesus as a gift or a problem?
- Do NOT water down the Gospel, but hold to the power of the words of God, that it is.
- Our Christianity is for the world, not ourselves.
- Do not be afraid! Be a saint! Live Jesus!
- No matter who is in the White House, Governor's house, or Mayor's house...Christ is King.

- If the Apostles are the foundation of the Church, then families are its supporting walls.
- Healing begins with repentance.
- Don't hunger for things of this world, but hunger for God and things of heaven.
- We are all called to be Eucharistic Missionaries.
- Run to Jesus!

So, with school now back in session, my classes this fall consist of the Mass/Chant Practicum, U.S. Catholic History, Preaching for Sunday Mass, and Mariology/Eschatology. Being in my last year here in the seminary has made me reflect on my last six years here. First, I realized this is my twenty-fifth update letter since I started here in August 2018. Two, I am very thankful for the friendships I have made at the seminary; it truly is a band of brothers. Lastly, I thank God for calling me to be part of His priesthood and to serve Him and His bride, the Catholic Church, and all of you. One chapter of my life is ending, and another is just beginning, and I can't wait.

God Bless! Run to Jesus!

We would like to invite all the adult women of St. John the Baptist Glandorf to a Welcome Retreat Weekend!

Begins on Saturday November 16 @ 8am & ends on Sunday November 17 @ 4pm.

The Welcome experience helps people discover what is missing in their lives and what to do about.

Welcome is an experience that helps teach you how to draw closer to Jesus Christ.

Free to attend. Meals provided. Casual dress. This is not an overnight retreat.

What are the benefits of going on a WELCOME RETREAT? You will find the answer to four important questions: Who am I? What am I here for? What matters most? What matters least?

Use the QR code to sign up or call Amy Owens with questions. 419-615-8024

NEED YOUR HELP OCIA (FORMERLY RCIA)

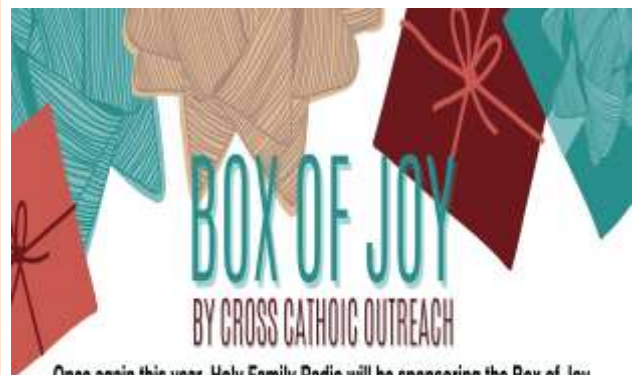

We are looking for volunteers to bring snacks to our upcoming OCIA meetings. If you enjoy sharing your favorite treats or simply want to contribute, this is a great way to help out! Different snack ideas are meat and cheese tray, veggie bars, fruit tray, veggie wraps or cookies. These are only suggestions any type of snack will be greatly appreciated.

The meetings will be on Monday nights starting in September. You will need to provide snacks for 10 people and you can drop them off around 5:45pm in the Parish Center.

Please sign up for a date that works for you. To sign up to bring snacks click on the link or scan the QR code below.

Your contribution will be greatly appreciated by everyone attending! Thank you for your generosity and support.

Once again this year, Holy Family Radio will be sponsoring the Box of Joy program for children suffering from severe poverty in Guatemala, Haiti, Dominican Republic, Nicaragua, El Salvador, Grenada, Honduras, and Malawi. In 2023, through your generosity, Holy Family Radio provided 1,692 gift boxes of the 131,308 total boxes by Cross Catholic Outreach. Through the Box of Joy program, you can ensure these children are not deprived of Christmas blessings this year. By packing a gift box and sponsoring the cost of its shipment ($9.00 per box), you can deliver a Box of Joy to a child overseas who would otherwise receive nothing. Please join Holy Family Radio in supporting this great cause by participating. Gift boxes and additional information are available in the back of church, and filled boxes can be returned there at any time up through November 10th after 10:30 mass. For any questions or additional information, please contact Brad Rump by phone/text at 419-722-9437 or by e-mail at brump@ustires.org or go to the website at www.crosscatholic.org/box-of-joy/. This is a great way to get your children and grandchildren involved in gift giving to the Poorest of the Poor.

CONSECRATION OF THE ELECTION TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Mary Immaculate, living tabernacle of the Divinity, where the eternal Wisdom lies hidden to be adored and served by angels and men; Queen of heaven and of earth, beneath whose sway are subject all things that are lower than God; Patroness of the United States of America, sorrowful and mindful of our own sinfulness and the sins of our nation, we come to thee, our refuge and hope.

Knowing that our country cannot be saved by our own works, and mindful of how much our nation has departed from the ways of thy Son, we humbly ask that thou wouldst turn thine eyes upon our country to bring about its conversion.

We consecrate to thee the integrity of the upcoming election and its outcome, so that what is spiritually and morally best for the citizens of our country may be accomplished, and that all of those who are elected would govern according to the spiritual and moral principles which will bring our nation into conformity with the teachings of thy Son. Give grace to the citizens of this land so that they will choose leaders according to the Sacred Heart of thy Son, that His glory may be made manifest, lest we be given the leaders we deserve.

Trusting in the providential care of God the Father and thy maternal care, we have perfect confidence that thou wilt take care of us and will not leave us forsaken. O Mary Immaculate, pray for us. Amen.

The Role of the Church in American Political Life

The Church is the body of Christ, who reigns as king over all Creation. Everything, including political life, belongs to Jesus Christ, and so participation in political life belongs to the mission of the Church. Our mandate is to 'go into all the world and proclaim the good news to the whole creation' (Mk 16:15). . . . Here, 'the creation' refers to every aspect of human life. . . . 'Nothing human can be alien to it.'

Pope Francis, Evangelii Gaudium, no. 181, quoting Aparecida Document, no. 380

Our national tradition of religious freedom permits and encourages all people of faith to bring the insights of their religious traditions to bear on political matters. As Pope Francis affirmed during his visit to the U.S., "Religious liberty, by its nature, transcends places of worship and the private sphere of individuals and families.... Religion itself, the religious dimension, is not a subculture; it is part of the culture of every people and every nation."

"If society is to have a future, it must respect the truth of our human dignity and submit to that truth. . . . A society is noble and decent not least for its support of the pursuit of truth and its adherence to the most basic of truths" (Fratelli Tutti, no. 207). The truths that guide public life can be known by natural reason. The sanctity of human life, the equal dignity of all individuals, the obligation to protect the vulnerable, the nature and purposes of sex, marriage, and family—these are not exclusively "religious" truths, but truths that all people of goodwill can come to know without the aid of revelation. Our Catholic faith sheds light on these truths, and so we have a duty to bring that light to our nation.

"The truth is something we receive, not something we make. We can only judge using the conscience we have, but our judgments do not make things true."

Many Parts, All One Body

The bishops and their pastoral collaborators each have distinct roles in the Church's mission. The bishops have the responsibility to govern the society of the Church, hand on doctrine and tradition, and administer the sacraments. The laity are called to bring the gospel to bear on the world. While many laity are involved in roles of leadership and service within the Church, it remains primarily the role of the laity to advocate for justice, to serve in public office, and to inform daily life with the gospel. “The direct duty to work for a just ordering of society is proper to the lay faithful” (Deus Caritas Est, no. 29).

Participation in political life requires judgments about concrete circumstances. While bishops together with their coworkers help form the laity in accordance with basic principles, they do not tell the laity to vote for particular candidates. On these often complex matters, it is the laity’s responsibility to form their consciences and grow in the virtue of prudence to approach the many and varied issues of the day with the mind of Christ.

Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship

Conscience is “a judgment of reason” by which one determines whether an action is right or wrong (see Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 1778). It does not allow us to justify doing whatever we want, nor is it a mere “feeling.” Conscience—properly formed according to God’s revelation and the teaching of the Church—is a means by which one listens to God and discerns how to act in accordance with the truth.² The truth is something we receive, not something we make. We can only judge using the conscience we have, but our judgments do not make things true.

It is our responsibility to learn more of Catholic teaching and tradition, to participate in Church life, to learn from trustworthy sources about the issues facing our communities, and to do our best to make wise judgments about candidates and government actions. These decisions should take into account a candidate’s commitments, character, integrity, and ability to influence a given issue. Thus equipped, and further impelled by our sense of patriotism, we exercise our right and duty to vote and otherwise to participate actively in public life.³ By forming our consciences for faithful citizenship, we can better pursue the common good and thus obey the command of our Lord to love our neighbors.

Who is the Greatest?

In the Gospel reading today the disciples were arguing with each other about who was the greatest. Jesus knew what they were talking about, so He told them that whoever wanted to be great must serve others.

Can you think of anyone who serves you? What about your parents? Priests, teachers and doctors also serve us. How can you serve others?

What would you like to do when you grow up? How will you be able to serve people then?

Answers to Cross-Word: ACROSS: 4. sacrifice; 5. God; 7. hear; 9. offer; 10. life; 11. not; 12. words; 14. save; 15 to DOWN: 1. prayer; 2. night; 3. me; 5. goodness; 6. defend; 8. risen; 10. Lord; 13. set.

SAINTS COSMAS AND DAMIAN

SEPTEMBER 26

COSMAS AND DAMIAN WERE TWIN BROTHERS IN THE 200'S AD. THEIR FATHER DIED WHEN THEY WERE YOUNG. THEY WERE RAISED BY THEIR MOTHER WHO WAS A CHRISTIAN.

BOTH BROTHERS WERE VERY GOOD STUDENTS. THEY BECAME GREAT DOCTORS.

THEY HEALED PEOPLE'S BODIES

God will give you strength!

AND CARED FOR THEIR SOULS TOO.

COSMAS AND DAMIAN WOULD NOT TAKE ANY PAY FOR THEIR WORK.

WHEN A PERSECUTION OF CHRISTIANS BEGAN THE BROTHERS WERE ARRESTED AND TORTURED.

BUT THEY WOULD NOT GIVE UP THE FAITH. THEY WERE THROWN IN THE WATER, BURNED AND CRUCIFIED, BUT DID NOT DIE UNTIL THEY WERE BEHEADED.

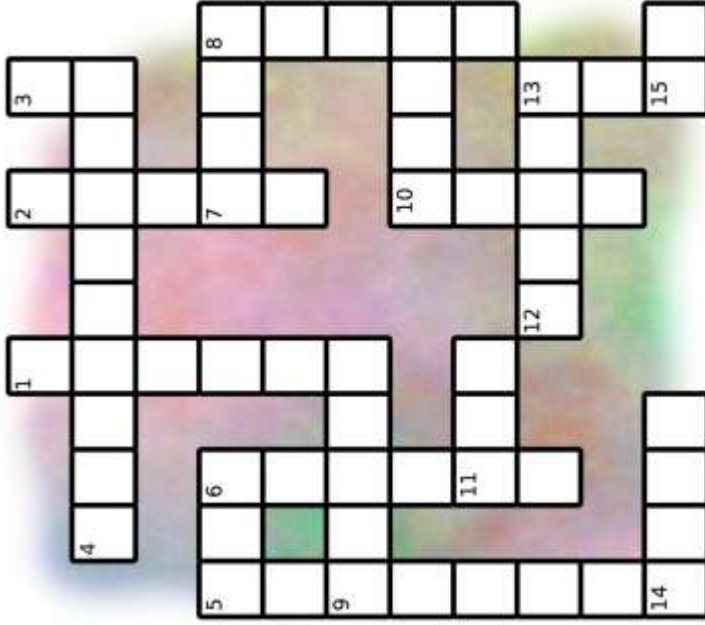

Still not dead yet?!

SAINTS COSMAS AND DAMIAN IMITATED JESUS IN HIS CARE FOR THE SICK AND SUFFERING PEOPLE. THEY ARE PATRON SAINTS OF DOCTORS AND SURGEONS. WE CAN LEARN FROM THEM TO CARE FOR OTHERS LIKE JESUS DID. WE SHOULD ALSO IMITATE THEIR PERSEVERANCE IN THE FAITH IN SPITE OF PERSECUTION.
