From the desk of
Fr. Tony

AUGUST 27, 2017

In today’s first reading and gospel we see some similarities between Eliakim and Peter. The Lord tells the prophet Isaiah in the first reading that “I will place the key of the House of David on Eliakim’s shoulder; when he opens, no one shall shut when he shuts, no one shall open.” God is favoring Eliakim as leader of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah.

We see God favoring Peter in today’s gospel also. Peter finds out from the Father that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God. No human being revealed this to Peter except God the Father. Peter found this out because he spent time in prayer with his Father. That is why Peter was blessed to lead the church. Peter still leads the church today. The Pope is also called Peter. Jesus tells Peter in the gospel today, “You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it, I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.”

God favors these two men Eliakim and Peter because they are committed to the cause. These two men listened to God’s word and then they carried out God’s Word. God always chooses such people. There are many leaders in the world but how many of them constantly listen to God and jump for the opportunity to carry out God’s commands? Jesus may we always listen to you and do your will. Amen. God bless you all. Fr. Tony
