TWENTY SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

AUGUST 28, 2016

From the desk of
Fr. Tony

Today Jesus tells us a story about taking the lower place of honor at a wedding banquet. Christ says when you are invited to a wedding take the lower place of honor and do not hurriedly take a higher place of honor. Lest a more distinguished guest may come and the hosts of the wedding may ask you to move and you will be embarrassed. Jesus is asking us to be humble in our actions. Christ says, "Those who humble themselves will be exulted and those who exult themselves will be humbled."

Christ goes on to say that when you are hosting a party do not only invite your relatives and neighbors to it. Rather invite the poor, the crippled, and the outcasts. The poor, the crippled, and the outcasts will not be able to repay you. You will then be blest by giving to others without repayment on their part.

Parents as we begin a new school year please set up a prayerful routine with your family in the morning. Is it possible for all of you to pray one decade of the rosary at 6:30am each day? It will only take you three minutes. God bless you all. Fr. Tony "Vocations demand courage and firmness. Vocations come from God."

St. Gaspar del Bufalo

FERVORINO – Relationships live in a careful balance. If a person changes, the balance is altered requiring a shift in the relationship. Jesus announced a change and Peter resisted. Sometimes, those we count on for support may actually get in the way. Jesus told Peter: "You are an obstacle to me."
