Jesus continues to draw those who believe. Our world is hungry and thirsty for the Bread of Life. Will you share your faith? Consider ministry in the Church. (John 6:41-51)

For all who hunger and thirst for the Bread of Life that the Church may reach out in love to the needs of all, we pray.

READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY AUGUST 15 Rv 11:19, 12:1-6, 10 1Cor 15:20-27 Lk 1:39--56

From the Desk of
Fr. Tony

AUGUST 8, 2021
19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's gospel Jesus does not hide or conceal who he is. Jesus is not hiding anything. He is showing all his cards. This is a brave move on his part because many of his followers go back to their old way of life after today's gospel. Jesus does not play games with people. Either we accept him for who he is or we go back loving and living in the world, which brings us sadness. Jesus says today, "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever;

and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

Before I go to mass, I don't have to feel good about it. I just have to go and receive God's word and his body and blood. My feelings do not control me. Our decisions are not governed by our feelings. I know it is difficult to go to mass each Sunday but it is our way of keeping holy the sabbath, which is one of the ten commandments. Many times, when we serve Christ, we just need to get our body to where Christ demands us to go. Don't over analyze God's commands. Just go and do what he tells you. Just accept his invitations. Everything else will work itself out and you will come to see why he is calling you to a certain task. God rarely ever gives us all the details to his invitations. This can make us scared. But Jesus says many times, "Do not be afraid."

God's word will give us assurance of his protection and guidance and Jesus' body and blood will strengthen us for any task he has in mind for us. Keep praying the rest of the summer and enjoy the sun and the Son of God. God bless you all. Fr. Tony
