READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY JANUARY 30

Jer 1:4-5, 17-19 1Cor 12:31, 13:13 Lk 4:21-30

JANUARY 23, 2022

3rd Sunday of Ordinary Time

From the Desk of
Fr. Tony

In the first reading today we hear from Nehemiah and Ezra, “Then Nehemiah, that is, His Excellency, and Ezra the priest-scribe and the Levites who were instructing the people said to all the people: “Today is holy to the LORD your God. Do not be sad, and do not weep”— for all the people were weeping as they heard the words of the law. He said further: “Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared; for today is holy to our LORD. Do not be saddened this day, for rejoicing in the LORD must be your strength!”

As Christians we must be a happy and joyful people. Sure, there is much to make us sad in the world but we can not let the world get to us. The people of Israel were sad in today’s first reading but Nehemiah and Ezra encouraged the people to press on and do not let one’s feelings control them. Our feelings are up and down like a yo yo. Sometimes we have to rejoice when we don't want to. Think of all the blessings we have at this time. Sure, we may not have gotten the job promotion we wanted but look at all you do have. You have a family, shelter, clothing, food, and your family's love. Once you take the time to recall all your blessings, it will not take long for you to get out of a saddened slump.

Dr. Merrill Raye died last week and he had a card which is titled, "The way to happiness." It says, "Keep your heart free from hate, your mind from worry, live simply, Trust God, and thank God for all of your blessings." This takes effort on our part. It is a purposeful mind set. If we do nothing then we will be sad. But in order to be happy we have to exert ourselves to be in union with Christ and others. God bless you all. Fr. Tony
