FEAST OF THE PRECIOUS BLOOD

Today we celebrate the feast of the Precious Blood. This has always been a joyous occasion for us Precious Blood brothers and priests. The redeeming power of Christ's Precious Blood gives hope to a fallen world. Jesus' Precious Blood heals, saves, and is Eucharistic drink for our souls. Christ is always giving of himself for humanity. Just look at the crucifix and see Jesus hanging on the cross. Maybe spend fifteen minutes just looking at Jesus. He begins to talk to you if you slow down and meditate on his crucifixion. The crucifix is like a book that speaks to you and me.

Sometimes we pass by a crucifix and give a tip of the hat or we may say hello Jesus. We may rush past a crucifix and not acknowledge Christ. We may think to ourselves that we have a well -established religion and it will be there when I need it. So we keep putting Jesus off and we really don't have heart to heart talks with him. Jesus is always going to be there when I need him and until then I am going to live it up and party hearty. Christ wants to be a part of your good times and bad times. Jesus wants to be close by you in times of sickness and in times of health. Please give Jesus some of your time. Just be quiet and talk to him. Let him talk to you in the gospels. Get out the gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. Just read a paragraph. Jesus spilled his blood for you. Did any of your friends spill their blood for you? Christ deserves some of your time in prayer. God bless you all. Glory to the Blood of Jesus now and forever! Fr. Tony
