READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY JULY 18th - Jer 23:1-6 Eph 2:13-18 Mk 6:30-34

From the Desk of
Fr. Tony

JULY 11, 2021
15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today, Jesus tells his apostles to be about the work of preaching, teaching, and healing. So, the apostles went off and preached repentance. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them. When Jesus gives a command, you just follow that command and trust that all things will work for the good for those who trust Christ.

It is obvious that Jesus has a mission to present to the world. Jesus is very direct to his apostles today. Jesus says, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave. Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them." Jesus has demands. I know that is hard to believe because sometimes we treat Jesus as a being that helps us do what we want and he gets us out of problems. Jesus has demands and he is always trying to talk to you and me. Jesus has plans for us each day. I believe that we sometimes listen to Christ's demands and invitations but I also know that we deny Christ.

Let us listen to the voice of God in scripture. Let us listen to the voice of Christ in our dreams and in the voice of others and ourselves. Let us ask God each day what he wants from us. Wherever God sends you, there will be a peace of mind that you have.

Jesus does not only send us to our friends and family. The apostles met many new people on their journey with Christ. We have to be open to meeting new people and encountering difficult situations if we are to be disciples of Christ. Many people rejected Christ and his teaching. Many people rejected the apostles in their ministry of evangelization. Jesus told his apostles to shake the dust from their feet if they and Christ's message are not welcome. Jesus, I trust in you! God bless you all. Enjoy the sun. At least it is not dreary and 15 degrees outside.

Fr. Tony
