Desk of
Fr. Tony

July 14, 2019

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus tells us today that "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." Jesus is being tested today and he lays the ground work for what he expects from his disciples. Loving God helps us love others. If we love God first, then we can love others in the same way we experience love from God. God is the source of all love. Our relationship with God teaches us how to forgive.

Think of all the times God forgives you when you ask. When we experience God's forgiveness, then we are willing to show that same forgiveness to others. All relationships are fostered by God and sustained by God. Jesus knows that he is the source of life and love. He tells us that he is the way, the truth, and the life. Jesus opens his arms to us and we in turn are called to love others. I have a plaque in the rectory and it says, "Love wasn't put in your heart to stay, love isn't love until you give it away." God bless you all. Fr. Tony
