2 FROM THE DESK OF FATHER MATT

www.stjohnglandorf.org

I am away this weekend on vacation. I would like to thank Fr. Tim McFarland, C.P.P.S. for being available to cover the parish so I can be away. Fr. Tim is celebrating in his 40 years of being a priest. Below is a little bit about his background.

Fr. McFarland, a native of Ottawa, Ohio, entered the Congregation in 1970 and was ordained on June 18, 1983. He has been involved in education ministry for many years.

After his ordination Fr. McFarland served as associate pastor at St. John the Baptist Church in Whiting, Ind., before he returned to Saint Joseph's College in Rensselaer, Ind., of which he is an alumnus, as the director of formation for C.P.P.S. students there and began his teaching career. He earned a Ph.D. in Theology from St. Louis University in 1995.

For 32 years, he was an important part of the life of the college, serving as a professor of religion and associate vice president for academic affairs. He was chaplain and assisted with campus ministry and the college's athletic program; he served as the chair of the faculty athletic committee for several years.

He also served in leadership with the Congregation as a member of the provincial council.

He ministered as a hospital chaplain from 2017–19 in northwest Indiana. In 2019, he was appointed to parish ministry at Immaculate Conception Church in Celina, Ohio, as parochial vicar.

Fr. McFarland returned to education ministry in 2021, at Calumet College of St. Joseph in Whiting, Ind., where he continues to teach and is the director mission and ministry, and the college's theology program, and is the faculty athletics representative.

He serves the Congregation as its director of formation, and has also been active in ministry with Companions.

Fr. McFarland is a scholar who has been in academia for much of his life as a priest, yet has the ability to explore profound theological studies in a way that is accessible to everyone.

He is attentive to those around him, always ready to listen and respond. Even keeled, he is the rare strategic thinker who can go with the flow. His ready smile encourages the people of God to put their trust in him—and there it is well placed.

PRAYER FOR THE Eucharistic Revival

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the gift of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who promises to remain with us always and who is ever present to us in the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist.

Reawaken our belief in His presence in the Eucharist and deepen our understanding of, love for and living out of this great Mystery. May this Sacrament of his sacrificial love be for us the sign of unity and the bond of charity.

Nourish us through our worthy reception of the Body and Blood of your Son, so that we may enjoy communion with you and with one another. Make us living witnesses of your love and mercy throughout our local church.

Send us forth as faithful missionary disciples, strengthened by the grace of the Eucharist to proclaim the Gospel, so all may know that the Living Bread Jesus gives is his Flesh for the life of the world. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

OUR 3RD SHOWING OF
Bishop Robert Barron's DVD Series on
"THE MASS"

TUESDAYS ~~JULY 11, 18, 25, 2023~~

ST. JOHN'S PARISH CENTER, 7:00-8:30PM

109 N Main St. Glandorf, OH

Walk through the Liturgy with Bishop Barron and be transformed through insights on this most privileged and intimate encounter with our Lord Jesus Christ. See how the Mass brings us out of the fallen world and into the heavenly realm, how it resonates with a call from God and a response from his people, the Church, and most importantly, how we are intimately joined with the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus through the Holy Eucharist.

"THE MASS" will help you understand how to fully, consciously, and actively participate in the source and summit of the Christian life.

Come and Bring a Friend Informational materials will be available for Eucharistic Revival

We become credible witnesses to the joy and transforming beauty of the Gospel only when we recognize that the love we celebrate in this sacrament cannot be kept to ourselves but demands to be shared with all.

POPE FRANCIS

The Month of July is dedicated to the Precious Blood of Jesus.

Please pray for Missionaries of the Precious Blood and the Sisters of the Precious Blood.

FRUITS OF ADORATION

About 15 years ago, a co-worker at the newspaper of the Diocese of Arlington, Virginia, where I worked for many years, moved to New York. She had discerned a call to the Sisters of Life, and that required, naturally, some big life changes.

Among the loose ends she needed to tie up was to find someone to fill her slot for Eucharistic adoration at 6 a.m. on Fridays at the nearby perpetual adoration chapel. Now, I am far from what you would call a morning person. But the chapel was literally across the street from my house, and I felt a tug to give my own little fiat to this weekly commitment. And while it sounds like hyperbole, doing so changed my life.

For an hour a week, I sat tête-à-tête with Our Lord in what amounted to a bit of a discernment showdown of my own: What do you want of me, Lord? Is this all there is to life? How can I serve you in the way that you desire?

The fruits that came from that regular "visit" were undeniable — peace, direction, clarity, further commitment to my faith. That early morning Holy Hour became a lifeline and helped propel me to be able to give bigger "yeses" to the Lord as he requested them of me.

When in formation for becoming a Pauline Cooperator with the Pauline Family, I was fascinated and delighted to discover that the Pauline life itself was born of a time of prayer (a "Visit") during Eucharistic adoration by our founder, Blessed James Alberione, at midnight on New Year's Eve 1900-01. "From the tabernacle, everything; without the tabernacle, nothing," Alberione wrote.

And in what has fast become my go-to meditation during adoration today, he continued: "The Visit is a meeting of our soul and of our whole being with Jesus. It is the creature meeting the Creator; the disciple before the Divine Master; the patient with the Doctor of souls; the poor one appealing to the Rich One; the thirsty one drinking at the Font; the weak before the Almighty; the tempted seeking a sure Refuge; the blind person searching for the Light; the friend who goes to the True Friend; the lost sheep sought by the Divine Shepherd; the wayward heart who finds the Way; the unenlightened one who finds Wisdom; the bride who finds the Spouse of the soul; the "nothing" who finds the All; the afflicted who finds the Consoler; the seeker who finds life's meaning. It is the shepherds at the crib, Mary Magdalene at Simon's house, Nicodemus who comes by night. It is the holy discussions of the Samaritan woman, of Zacchaeus, of Philip, and of the Apostles with Jesus; especially in the last week of His earthly life and after the resurrection."

No matter how we come to him, his arms are open wide to receive us.

Pope Francis, in a recent meeting with representatives from the National Eucharistic Revival and Congress, expressed his sorrow that many people "have lost the sense of adoration." This sense, he said, this "real and loving presence of the Lord," needs to be regained. "It is a prayer we have lost; few people know what this is, and (the) bishops need to catechize the faithful on the prayer of adoration," he said.

The bishops seem to be taking their role seriously. Bishop Andrew Cozzens of Crookston, Minnesota, one of the primary leaders of the National Eucharistic Revival, told members of the Catholic Media Association in Baltimore in early June that since the bishops had started the revival, they have made a point to have adoration throughout the night during their spring and fall plenaries. "It's been very powerful," he said. "This is where revival starts. It starts in our hearts."

It does start in our hearts — each of ours. It starts with that first yes, that first visit, those first moments in silence before the monstrance or the tabernacle, where the Lord begins his work on us. Whether the blind person searching for the Light, the thirsty one drinking at the Font, or the "nothing" who finds the All, we stay with the one who remains with us, the one who, as Bishop Cozzens so beautifully said, is "worthy of all the adoration we give to God alone."

ARE YOU SOMEONE OR DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO...

- Has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic?
- Was baptized Catholic but has not celebrated Sacraments of Reconciliation, Holy Eucharist or Confirmation?
- Would like to understand your Catholic faith better?

We offer you an opportunity to learn more about the Catholic faith through the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) process. Sessions focus on the teachings of the Catholic Church, the Sacraments, the Mass and how to live out the Catholic faith on a daily basis, with preparation for individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Eucharist during the Easter Vigil. You are welcome to join us to learn about our Sacred Tradition and what the Deposit of Faith given to us by Jesus Christ teaches us. Our sessions begin in September and continue every Monday through May from 6:00pm to 7:30pm. If you are interested in taking this first step to inquire about the Catholic faith, please call the rectory at 419-538-6928 and register. There will be paperwork to fill out and return, prior to the first session in September. We hope you will join us in this process of learning more about Christ and
