If you are willing to share what you have, God will multiply your gifts. Imagine how God can use you to nourish a hungry world. Consider being a sister, brother, priest or deacon. (John 6:1-13)

That the Church may respond generously to Jesus' call to feed and nourish his people, we pray.

READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY AUGUST 1 Ex 16:2-4, 12-15 Eph 4:17, 20-24 Jn 6:24-35

From the Desk of
Fr. Tony

JULY 25, 2021
17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's first reading and the gospel we see God feeding and taking care of his people. God does take care of us and we in turn are to give our surplus to others. Notice we do not give everything we have away. God wants us to take care of ourselves but we cannot hoard our surpluses. This type of behavior is selfish and is not according to Christ's teachings.

We see Jesus feeding thousands upon thousands of people today. Notice in today's first reading from the second book of kings that it is a big deal to feed 100 people with a small amount of food. This is during the Old Testament. But Jesus supersedes the Old Testament by multiplying the loaves and the fishes to feed thousands upon thousands of people. Jesus is the fulfillment of the Old Testament and his way is more powerful than the Old Testament prophets and their teachings.

Jesus is a miracle worker. Jesus can take care of our spiritual, physical, and emotional needs. He can do it all. I think sometimes we want to prove to ourselves we can do things without Christ's help. I think we want to impress ourselves and others that it is about my power and ability. Give God the glory and let him lead and guide you always. If we are encouraging people to trust in us instead of Christ, then we are leading them astray. You and I will die someday. Then who will our followers follow? Another person? God wants us to lead all people to him and be humble in his sight and in the sight of others. Thank you, God, for the ultimate food, the Body and Blood of Christ. God bless you all. Fr. Tony FERVORINO – The man "sold all he had" for the treasure he found. Family relationships are "treasures" and demand our total personal investment. Invest yourself in the "treasure" of your family.
