

There's a New Guy on the Block

I am your new pastor Fr. Matthew Keller, C.P.P.S.

Pleas call me Fr. Matt

I am Fr. Matt Keller, C.P.P.S., I am a Missionary of the Precious Blood.

My Background

I grew up in Maria Stein, Ohio the oldest of four boys to Paul and Carol Keller. Growing up I had an interest in the priesthood and religious life. I entered formation/seminary with Missionaries of the Precious Blood right out of high school. I began my formation years in Dayton, OH and then our formation program moved to Chicago, IL where I completed my undergraduate degree from St. Xavier University in 2012. Then I spent nine months in an African American Parish in Cincinnati, OH called the Church of the Resurrection, and then return to Chicago to study theology at Catholic Theological Union in Chicago. I graduated with a Masters of Divinity in 2017 and was ordained a priest in 2018.

For my first assignment I was the parochial vicar of the downtown Dayton Catholic Parishes of Emmanuel, Holy Trinity, and Emmanuel.

Hobbies and Interest

I am interest in sports, football I would say would be my favorite sport but I do not mind basketball and baseball. I like to watch and from time to time I am not against playing a pickup game. I also enjoy doing a little fishing and hunting. I also enjoy taking a nice walk.

What do I like about being a priest?

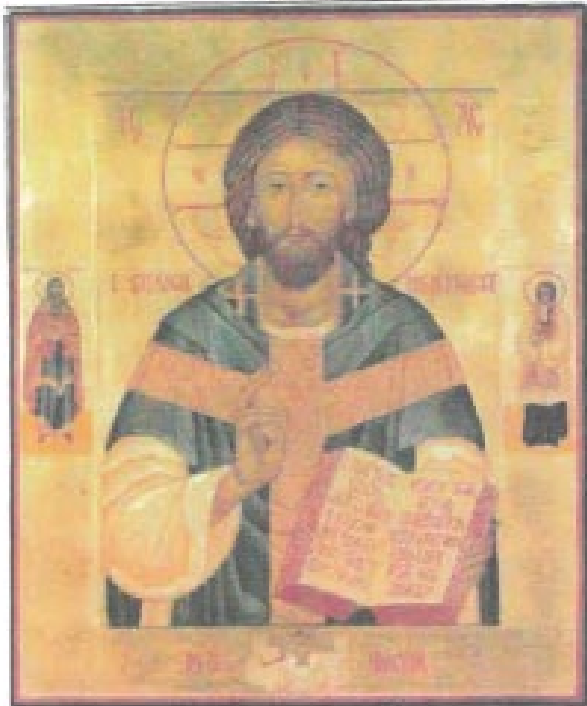

Sacrament ministry, I enjoy celebrating Mass and hearing confessions. Baptisms, Weddings, Anointing of the Sick, funeral (thought technically not a sacrament), the works. I also enjoy sitting and visiting with people.

Looking Ahead

Like everyone else I am a sinner seeking the Kingdom of God. As your pastor I look forward to proclaiming to proclaiming that kingdom and leading you to it. As time passes you will learn a lot more about me, as I look forward to learning about each of you. I look forward to meeting you, working with and for you, and serving you during the years ahead.

Parents of Priests Prayers for Priests

Prayers for Clergy, Religious, and/or Groups of Individuals for each day of the month.

Dear Lord,
we pray that the Blessed Mother wrap her mantle around your priests and through her intercession strengthen them for their ministry. We pray that Mary will guide your priests to follow her own words, "Do whatever He tells you" (Jn 2:5). May your priests have the heart of St. Joseph, Mary's most chaste spouse. May the Blessed Mother's own pierced heart inspire them to embrace all who suffer at the foot of the cross. May your priests be holy, filled with the fire of your love seeking nothing but your greater glory and the salvation of souls.
Amen.

Saint John Vianney, pray for us.

READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY July 10

Dt 30:10-14 Col 1:15-20 Lk 10:25-37

From the Desk of
Fr. Matt

Why celebrate blood? Why celebrate the Precious Blood of Jesus Christ? There might be some that object to celebrating blood they might argue that celebrating blood makes them feel uncomfortable or say that it is gory to celebrate blood, even if it is the Precious Blood of Jesus. I will not disagree that celebrating blood, even if it is Christ's blood it is gory and in way it makes me feel uncomfortable. But in celebrating the precious blood of Jesus we celebrate freedom, we celebrate life, and we celebrate a relationship with our God.

This weekend as a country we celebrate the 4th of July and in celebrating we celebrate our independence and our freedom. This weekend in a parish served by the Missionaries of the Precious Blood we are celebrating the feast/solemnity of the Precious Blood of Jesus Christ and in celebrating the blood of Jesus we celebrate freedom. In celebrating the blood of Jesus we celebrate our true freedom. For it is in Jesus shedding his blood on the cross that we celebrate our freedom from sin and death.

In celebrating the Precious Blood of Jesus we celebrate a freedom that can never be taken away from us. In celebrating the Precious Blood of Jesus we celebrate life. In the Israelite practice it was believed that very life of a living being was in its blood. With our modern understanding of science, we might look down on this idea. But you know with just a sample of your blood it can tell a lot about the life that is going on inside of us. But most importantly in celebrating the Precious Blood of Jesus we are not only celebrating freedom and life but in celebrating the Precious Blood of Jesus, we celebrate a relationship with our God. We celebrate covenant relationship with our God. A contract and a covenant relationship share a lot of things in common, both are relationship agreements. What makes covenant different is once, one enters it is forever binding, the relationship can never be broken.

At our baptism we entered this covenanted relationship with our God and through our baptism we received an indelible, permanent mark on our lives, often times we do not think of that mark. We do not see this mark. We commit ourselves to this covenant relationship through the grace of our baptism and renew commitment to this covenant relationship through the gift of the Eucharist. For it is through the gift of the Eucharist that Christ offers his blood for us as the new and everlasting covenant, it is in our receiving that we commit ourselves to the covenant.

Through the precious blood of Jesus we celebrate a God who is self-giving of himself. As Christ gives himself out of love for us we are called to do the same for each other and we are called to do this for each other.
