READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY (June 25th) Jer 20:10-13 Rom 5:12-15 Mt 10:26-33

From the desk of
Fr. Tony

THE MOST HOLY
BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST
JUNE 18, 2017

Today we celebrate the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. We have the privilege of partaking of Jesus' Body and Blood each time we go to mass. The Eucharist is the center of our faith. The Eucharist allows us to remain in Christ. Jesus said, "apart from me you can do nothing." If we are going to bear fruit that will last we must stay one and in communion with Jesus.

Jesus tells us today that "Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink."

Jesus is very explicit in the gospel reading today. To stay in communion with Christ we must partake of the Eucharist. We truly need Jesus and Jesus knows that we need him. We can fool ourselves at times and say, "I don't need to go to mass." But when we say this we are turning our backs on Christ. Thank you Jesus for giving your whole self to humanity! God bless you all. Fr. Tony

HOME TO GOD: Please remember in your Masses and prayers the soul of Msgr. Cleo Schmenk, a son of our parish. Msgr. Schmenk was born and raised here in Glandorf on Main Street. No matter where Msgr. Schmenk was stationed or lived his heart was still here in Glandorf. He loved coming back to visit his family and friends. After his retirement he would visit annually here at St. John’s rectory and loved helping Fr. Tony and the former pastors with Masses. I can still remember him telling me that on one of the Saturdays when he was here helping out he had the 8:00am, a funeral, a wedding and the 4:30pm Mass. He had lots of stamina for a retired priest. Wow! Our sincere sympathy is extended to the Alan Klemm family (where Msgr. Schmenk grew up, Gerry Klemm was his sister) and all of Msgr. Schmenk’s relatives and friends. The family is thinking the funeral Mass here in Glandorf will be the week of June 26th. May he rest in peace!

FERVORINO –

Parenting is a Eucharistic activity because from the first moment of conception children consume us, our flesh, blood, energy, time and resources. If we don't sacrifice ourselves, our children would not have life. This is the priesthood of parenting. Christ is present in this self-sacrifice.
