SUNDAY, JUNE 2, 2019
The Ascension of the Lord
7th Sunday of Easter

This week we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord. Some dioceses celebrate it on Ascension Thursday and some on the Sunday after. The Ascension is forty days after Jesus' resurrection. Jesus ascends into heaven in the presence of his mother and apostles. Jesus gave of himself fully while he lived here on earth. He did this to teach you and I that being a disciple of Christ means that we give all for the glory of God. We give God our time in prayer and we put ourselves at the service of others. When we do this we have peace.

Jesus has shown you and me that there will be troubles in this life. We can not escape the crosses that come our way. Many times, others criticize us for our honesty or our service to others. We have a responsibility to keep God's commandments first and foremost. Jesus pleased his Father first and foremost. There were times Jesus' apostles told him that he did not have to take up his cross. There were times when Jesus was tempted to be the king of Israel. He could have done both if he wanted but he denied both opportunities to please his Father in heaven. You and I will leave this world someday also. Will we leave with regrets or will we leave knowing that we gave all to Christ and his mission? God bless you all.

Please enjoy the summer and be safe. Watch out for those motorcycles. Keep your eyes on Jesus this summer. Fr. Tony

What a miraculous experience the "Farmers' Mass" was this past Thursday. Thank you to Fr. Tony, Fr. Rick, Deacon Don, our seminarian Eric Kaufman and all of the ministers who helped at Mass. We would also like to thank our mixed choir for the very meaningful songs that were song. Beautiful! We would also especially like to thank the many many people from the area who attended the Mass and came to pray for our farmers. Thank you, Jesus! We trust in you! Let Your will be done!

We would like to thank DeVon Coolman for the 6 wonderful blessed years she gave to St. John's parish family as the CCD Director of the 6-8 grades, Director of high school and our RCIA program. We will sure miss her expertise and her Christ-like personality. DeVon is stepping down to help in the family business and whatever our dear Lord ask her to do. Thank you DeVon! Our prayers are with you for a blessed life with your husband Peter.

We welcome Mindy Recker as the CRE of the junior high CCD program and Ruth Gerding as the CRE of the high school program. We are very fortunate to have these two ladies on board. Thank you both for accepting the positions. God bless you all! Fr. Tony & Ashley Duling
