13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus tells us today, "Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me. Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward. And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple— amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward."

This quote from Christ today reminds us of our responsibility as Christians. We have to be aware of the fact that Christ is coming to us each day in the poor, the hungry, and the weak. God also sends prophets into our midst. These people speak God's word when it is not acceptable. When we comfort these prophets and accept them we will be rewarded. God sees everything we do and he rewards us in his good time. What keeps us from giving to others? Are we afraid that there will not be enough for us and others? Are we too busy with our schedules that we do not take the time to see other people's needs? Maybe we are not happy with God's rewards? They may not be good enough for us? We may be used to rewarding ourselves and we may be picky about how we want to be rewarded? I see people are very picky with their time nowadays. We do not give our time freely to others. Maybe we only give our time to those who make us life or feel good? Do we trust Christ in his rewards? He knows what is best for us. Can we give our lives, our time, and our future to Christ? If we do, we will experience a freedom that the world can not give. Keep trusting in Christ. He has the whole world in his hand and he has plans for a future for you and me. Do not doubt his love for you. God bless you all. Fr. Tony
