SUNDAY, MARCH 13, 2016
FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

In today’s gospel we see the scribes and Pharisees bringing forth a woman caught in adultery. These scribes and the Pharisees were setting a trap for Jesus. Moses commanded the people to stone those women caught in adultery. If Jesus tells the people not to stone the woman then Jesus would be disregarding Moses’ or God’s law.

Jesus then tells the Pharisees and scribes and those gathered around this woman caught in adultery, “Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.” They all were sinners and no one could stone this woman caught in adultery.

This is the year of Mercy and we are all in need of God’s mercy. God is willing to give us his forgiveness freely and without cost. God wants us to own up to our sins and try not to sin again. Jesus tells the woman caught in adultery, “Go, and from now on do not sin any more.” Let us forgive others as God forgives us. God bless you all. Fr. Tony Counsel the doubtful. When someone comes to you for advice or to talk about a problem, be a good listener and say a silent prayer to Jesus asking for his help in offering advice, love and care to this person. Bring Jesus into the conversation; offer words of truth and hope that God does care. Go out of your way to actually help that person. Work on a consistent prayer life to help you and those in spiritual need.
