Jesus, the true vine, promised that if we live in him we will produce abundantly. What are the signs of new life in you? Find ways to nourish your relationship with Jesus. (John 15:1-8)

For the Church, that pruning may produce abundant life, we pray.

READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48 1Jn 4:7-10 Jn 15:9-17

From the Desk of Fr. Tony

SUNDAY, MAY 2
5th Sunday of Easter

Jesus tells us today, “Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing.” Now some of us may not believe this but it is true. God gives life and takes life. Jesus is the boss who paid the cost. You need Jesus if your life will amount to anything. I know people don’t like to hear that also. Jesus is not arrogant, he is God. He was human and he was treated like a human but he is God also so we must treat him with honor. We can fertilize a plant and water it but it is God who gives it life. Farmers know how important it is to pray. There is much a farmer is not in control of like the weather, the sun, and the bugs. We need Jesus more than we know. He wants us to address him each day and talk to him throughout the day. Are we afraid that we will get into a new habit of talking to God? What is so wrong with that? I don’t know anyone who was disappointed that they talked to God during the whole day. When you talk to God you are not talking to yourself. Talking to God is not a psychological disorder. Are you afraid that you will depend on him too much? No one needs to know that you are conversing with God even at work. Depend on Jesus and watch your world become brighter. Congratulations to our first communicants! Please pray that these second graders will keep coming back to Jesus each week receiving God’s word and his body and blood. Pray that these second graders become dependent on God and not themselves. Thank you parents, Diane Utrup, Michelle Horstman, Cheryl Schimmoeller, and Deb Burwell for getting these students ready for God. God bless you all. Fr. Tony

An opportunity for our youth to attend this wonderful conference.

Not everyone can come to a Steubenville Youth Conference this summer, so Steubenville is coming to you! The Steubenville Youth Retreat experience combines livestreamed and in-person elements to allow you to gather as a group for a weekend – wherever you are – and encounter Christ together.

If interested, email to: stjohnshsccd@gmail.com and I will forward the information to you.

Next Fall, incoming Juniors, Seniors and graduates are being offered an option of a Post-secondary class through Lourdes College in Toledo. The Class will be Christian Ethics-a 3 hour class. The cost is 234.00 for the 3 hours, plus a textbook. This class is on-line with a few in class instructions (optional). Class is expected to start late August and end in December. In the past, multiple colleges and universities in the area were asked about accepting this class, and the response was if not for a Religion class, it would be accepted as an Elective. If interested, please contact Ruth Gerding at either stjohnshsccd@gmail.com or call me at 567-204-1275 for more information. Would like all interested to confirm by June 1, 2021. Pre-registration for next year will be forthcoming.
