2 FROM THE DESK OF FR. MATT

www.stjohnglandorf.org

There is a story of a little boy and his grandmother having a conversation and the little boy said "Grandma, I know what happened at Pentecost." The grandmother responded by saying "what happened at Pentecost?" He said "it was when Jesus came set them on fire and then they were no longer afraid."

This little boy's answer to his grandmother is cute but also in cute way he is also right. When we think of event of Pentecost we think of the strong driving wind, the tongues of fire, and the apostles speaking in various languages that whole crowd understood that they were speaking in their own native language of "the mighty acts of God" (Acts 2:11). And after this event the disciples went out spreading the message of Jesus. Jesus set them on fire.

But what we can so easily forget is that prior to this event of Pentecost happening the Apostles were afraid, and they were also experiencing mixture of other emotions as well. We also hear this detail in our scriptures today as well, the Apostles were hiding behind locked doors. And their fear you could argue was reasonable, I mean Jesus their leader and close friend was convicted and put to death by the religious leaders. Because of their association with him, the religious leaders could be coming for them next. They were also experiencing grief and regret at the death of Jesus; I mean they told Jesus they would be there for him but when they came for him they fled in fear. Yet it is amid this fear and mixture of emotions, that Jesus appears and brings them his peace and breathes the Holy Spirit on them. They were as the little boy said set on fire, their receiving of the Holy Spirit strengthened them to go share the message of Jesus with the world.

Today as a church we officially draw Easter Season to close, after today the Easter Candle will exit its prominent place in the sanctuary and we will return to Ordinary time. And throughout this Easter Season we have been reading from the Acts of the Apostles and how the Holy Spirit worked in the lives of the apostles, how the Holy Spirit set the Apostles on fire, and we learn how this fire effected the Church to grow.

The Holy Spirit set the apostles on fire but you Holy Spirit has the tendency to set our lives on fire as well. And when Jesus sets us on fire, it springs us into action. Nearly five years ago when I was ordained priest, I selected this passage to read because I knew in order for me to be the best priest I can be I needed that breath, that fire of the Holy Spirit on my life. Bishop Charron, invoked the Holy Spirit upon me as he laid hands on me and in his homily he said that he prayed the Holy Spirit would come upon my life in a powerful way. As I think of all that I have experienced as priest it has been the effect of the Holy Spirit setting my life on fire springing me into action, the work of God at work in my life.

We are in the season of graduations and in this season, we are grateful for what graduates have accomplished. But I am also excited for our graduates in how the Holy Spirit will set their hearts on fire as they set out to accomplish their goals and dreams. As we celebrate Pentecost today may the Lord set our hearts and lives on fire to spring us into action to do his work.

PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

Come Holy Spirit, Fill the hearts of your faithful, and enkindle in us the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and we shall be recreated, and you will renew the face of the earth. O God, you teach the hearts of your faithful by giving them the light of your Spirit. Grant to us, that by this same Spirit, we may be truly wise and ever enjoy your consolation. Amen.

Prayer on Memorial Day

Lord Jesus Christ, this weekend we honor the memory of those men and women who have given their lives for their compatriots in the cause of freedom. They have worked, fought, and died for the heritage of freedom, brotherhood and honor that they have passed on to us. Help us recall that You Yourself gave up Your life for all human beings in the cause of true freedom to save us from self love and sin. Teach us the true meaning of peace and freedom, that the real battle must always take place in ourselves before it will be won in families and nations. Make us keep Your memory in our Eucharistic celebrations and pray for peace and freedom of the whole world. Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.
