NOVEMBER 14, 2021

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's readings we hear about Jesus' second coming. There is a need for you and I to be ready. Jesus tells us in the gospel, "But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father." It is hard to believe that the angels in heaven and Jesus do not know when Jesus will return to earth again. Only God the Father knows. The big test is for you and I to be ready. So, you can say our life on this earth is a test. Will we stand by Christ and his church until Jesus' second coming? The world will try to tear us away from Christ and his church. But you do not want to be torn away from Christ and his church when Jesus comes again. Jesus will ask you why did you leave me and my church? Why didn't you stay faithful?

Here is the big news, heaven and earth will pass away but Jesus' words will never pass away. Jesus will win! So, the world and the devil can try all they want to destroy Christianity but Jesus will win. We want to be on Jesus' side and win with him at the end of the age. If you know Jesus will win in the end, why would I join another team? Because the other team, the world, is easy and pleasurable. Jesus' team is difficult and self-sacrificing. I want to take it easy on earth. Jesus makes life tough and I don't like being tested by him. What will your reasons be for staying on Jesus' team or leaving his team? God bless you all. Fr. Tony

We are happy to announce Michelle Horstman will be the new administrative assistant following the retirement of Mary Ellen Halker. Please help us welcome Michelle as she will be starting in the rectory this week. Ashley Duling & Fr. Tony
