NOVEMBER 18, 2018

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus tells us today that he doesn't even know when his second coming to earth will happen. The angels of God do not know when Jesus will come to earth in his second coming. Only God the Father knows when Jesus will come to earth the second time. Some people have a hard time believing this. But Jesus said it himself in the gospel today. We do need to be prepared for his second coming. Remember that he came to earth over two thousand years ago. We are living in the period of his second coming. He is closer now than two thousand years ago. Be ready, be ready, be ready.

You and I can tell when summer is coming because the tree limbs are tender and the buds on the tree are visible. If we can interpret the changing of the seasons we must be able to pay attention to the signs of Jesus' second coming. Before his second coming, the sun will darkened, the moon will not give off light, the stars will be falling from the sky. Be on the lookout for this and know Jesus will come again. Don't live to please man but live to please God. You were born to be Jesus' disciple not a person of the world. God bless you all. Fr. Tony

ANNOUNCEMENT: Playing any sports this year? You are expected to attend both the Fall & Winter sessions of High School Religious Education Groups or Grade School CCD Classes---plus weekend Saturday or Sunday Mass. This includes all players, coaches and their families. Attendance at these groups/classes will be monitored and reviewed. For each class missed (which is not an excused absence) you will be sitting out one game.—To play CYO sports, the following are the only excused absences from CCD: sickness, death in family, college visitation day, parish sponsored event, sport tournament games only with O-G athletes/fans involved, and work (up to 3 missed CCD classes due to work). After the third absence due to work, the player is not permitted to play in a game until he/she returns to CCD class. All other reasons are unexcused. Parents, if your child is sick, please call his/her teacher/leader before class. If necessary, the Parish Council will review attendance or unexcused absence issues on an individual basis. We kindly ask the cooperation of all concerned as we implement this church policy for the good of our parish.
