In the reign of God love is essential Loving God, self, and neighbor is the basis of all Christian vocations. How do/will you choose to love? (Mark 12: 28-34)

For this community that we may always love with our whole beings, we pray

READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY November 11 1 Kgs. 17: 10-16; Heb. 9: 24-28 Mk 12: 38-44

From the Desk of
Fr. Tony

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today Jesus was asked, “Which is the first of all the commandments.” Jesus replied, “Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is Lord alone. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is like it. You shall love your neighbor as yourself. Jesus’ reply tells us many things. The first thing it says is that God is Lord alone. People who worship other gods have to step aside for the one true God. Then Jesus is really emphasizing the importance of loving God with all you got. To love God with your heart, soul, mind and all your strength is a priority for God. How do you love God? One way to do that is through prayer. Do we give of our heart, soul, mind, and strength to God every day in prayer?

God wants us to put some effort in our communion with him. Thank Jesus that he insists that we go to mass each week. One of the Ten Commandments says that we are to keep the Sabbath day holy. We do this by going to mass on the Sabbath day Sunday. Jesus, help us to love you with our everything. Jesus, you come first and then others. Help us to keep this priority our whole lives. Amen. God bless you all. Fr. Tony
