READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY September 25

Am 6:1a, 4-7    1Tm 6:11-16    Lk 16:19-31

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

From the Desk of Deacon Don Inkrott

This weekend's readings call us out to the temptation of putting worldly goods ahead of our salvation and coming to know God. In the Gospel reading, Jesus tells a parable to his disciples about the shrewd manager who uses his employer's wealth to possibly make his life better after losing his job. And we expect Jesus to condemn this approach and attitude but he does not. On the contrary, he praises the manager and declares the children of the world are more resourceful than the children of the light. We know that the children of the world are those that don't believe in Christ and the children of the light are those of us who do. Jesus is talking about us. He wants us to be bold and resourceful in living out our lives for Christ and to be shining examples of how a child of God should act. Not to be examples of focusing our lives on how we can accumulate material things. In the first reading of the book of Amos, the rich man is caught into the accumulation of goods and plots how to accumulate more by robbing and mistreating the poor. St. Paul in the 2nd reading calls us to pray for those who have money and those in authority, to act in accordance with what God has called us to. The readings bring to mind our own lives, on how we will choose to place first in our priorities. Is it God or is it the enticement of worldly possessions. God bless all, Deacon Don

ST. JOHN PARISH JOINT COUNCIL MEETING MINUTES May 19, 2022

Voted for New Parish Council Positions and they are as follows:

President - Mike Karhoff, Vice President - Jodi Schroeder, Secretary – Jon Leopold, Religious Ed Representative – Tara Gerding, Ecumenical Representative – Becky Schroeder, Religious Vocations - Kelly Morman, Toledo Diocesan Representative – Kim Ansley, Missions Representative – Carl Siefker, Community Relations Representative – Nick Ellerbrock

Handicap Driveway - At this point, we are at 84% of the Diocesan campaign with over $120,000 of the money in, so there was discussion if we could tell The Concrete Couple to get started on this project. Motion: Give the go-ahead to The Concrete Couple, through K&L concrete, to replace concrete on the North side of church for the handicap parking and the spaces would be re-configured. The motion was by Brian Grimes. It was seconded by Tara Gerding. Motion passed.

Church Choir Loft- TDG had an architect come to the council meeting to explain the staircase proposals to the councils. Everyone walked to the church to envision where the proposed ideas would be constructed. There was a lot of discussion and concerns in which the council made no decisions and the options were not favorable. Further detail, and more exploratory options are needed before any type of decision would be made. The council members agreed that the safety is a priority and also the integrity of the church needs to be preserved along with making sure little to no seating would be removed if the project moves forward. Other options are being explored.

Updates/New Business: Wedding rentals were discussed and the reasons to allow wedding receptions and not to allow wedding receptions in the parish center. It was brought up that we do not have the staff or the control on the building during wedding receptions, there is a greater chance of needing maintenance etc. during a wedding reception vs. a rental in the cafeteria. The control on the building is an issue and accountability during the reception. Underage bar tenders, inappropriate music and dancing were all discussed and those acts do not follow what we teach in that building on a regular basis. We have looked into cleaning companies with no luck. We have thought about hiring a parish center coordinator but decided at this time we are not sure we would even find anyone wanting to take on that during the weekends. The council decided to put a hold on wedding receptions in the parish center starting in 2024 until further notice. The council all voted on the motion. It was motioned by Brian Grime. It was seconded by Tim Hoehn. Motion passed.
