READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY OCTOBER 3 Gn 2:18-24 Heb 2:9-11 Mk 10:2-16

From the Desk of
Fr. Tony

SEPTEMBER 26, 2021
26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

At that time, John said to Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us." Jesus replied, "Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me. For whoever is not against us is for us. Anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward."

If people are listening to Jesus and doing what he says then they are on Jesus' side. As Christians we clearly work together and need one another. Evil is against Christ and his followers. The followers of Christ do not need to be against each other also. We are really defeating Christ's mission if Christians are jealous of each other and condemning one another. Our enemy is not one another. Our enemy is satan. As followers of Christ, we have a mission to carry out. We are to proclaim Christ's gospel and proclaim Jesus' death and resurrection. We need one another to carry out this mission. As Jesus said, "Whoever is not against us is for us." If we are condemning and belittling other followers of Christ, we have a pride problem. Pride, envy, and jealousy are evil sins and these qualities do not belong to Jesus and his followers. We should be happy and joyous if another Christian is having success in spreading the kingdom of God. Either by works of charity or teaching. God bless you all. Fr. Tony
