“What ought we to do?” Let joy and gladness show forth in you. You are called to be the presence of Jesus. (Luke 3:10-18)

For those discerning a vocation to the priesthood or the consecrated life, that they may be inspired by the joyful witness of those who are already dedicating their lives to God, we pray.

READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY DECEMBER 19

Mi 5:1-4a Heb 10:5-10 Lk 1:39-45

DECEMBER 12, 2021
3rd Sunday of Advent

From the Desk of
Fr. Tony

We hear in the gospel today, “Now the people were filled with expectation, and all were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ. John answered them all, saying, “I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing fan is in his hand to clear his threshing floor and to gather the wheat into his barn, but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.”

John the Baptist must have been one heck of a preacher because many were wondering if he was the Christ. John had a big following and he also had disciples that followed him. After getting all this attention I am sure it would have been hard to give up all that fame. John was humble enough to direct people to Jesus. John even belittles himself by saying, “I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his, Jesus’, sandals. John knew his place and John knew that Christ would judge between the bad people and good people. Between the chaff and the wheat.

Jesus is bigger than you and me. When we acknowledge that like John did today, then we can start entering into a realistic relationship with Christ. Jesus is big and I am not. Jesus will judge me at the end of my life. Jesus decides whether I go to heaven or not. Jesus is my judge. When I start understanding this then I can start being a faithful disciple of Christ. I can come to Christ in my weakness and frailty. I don’t have to know everything. I don’t have to be strong in other people’s eyes all the time. I only have to impress Christ. God bless you all.
Fr. Tony

On the weekend of: December 11th & 12th ,2021, our brothers and sisters representing the Land of Peace mission- a nonprofit organization will be visiting our Parish speaking about the Christians and the ongoing situation in the Holy Land. They will be selling Crucifixes, religious art work, and rosaries- all made of olive wood which is native to Israel and Bethlehem, to raise funds to help support our fellow brothers and sisters. Since tourism has greatly depleted, Christian families in the holy land, who depend on tourists, have been greatly affected. The goal of this mission is to help the poor and needy families in Bethlehem and Jerusalem. Sale of these goods will help them very much and also give you the opportunity to have “something” authentic from the holy land. Please browse and buy some articles. It is for a good cause and also a help to your personal devotion. Please visit our website:
