Through the power of the Spirit Jesus proclaimed his mission. How are you carrying on that mission today? Ponder the possibility of being a deacon, priest, brother or sister. (Luke 1: 1, 4: 14-21)

For those discerning a call to ministry in the Church, we pray:

READINGS FOR NEXT SUNDAY (Jan. 31st): Jer. 1: 4-5, 17-19; 1 Cor. 12: 31, 13: 13; Lk. 4: 21-30

SUNDAY, JANUARY 24, 2016

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Ecumenical Sunday

Have you ever read something and then said to yourself, “this passage is speaking of me.” In today’s gospel we see Jesus reading from the scroll of the prophet Isaiah. Jesus unrolls the scroll and found the passage, “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.” Isaiah is speaking about Jesus. Jesus will break the chains that bind people. Jesus will give sight to the blind. Jesus will set people free from their sins.

Jesus is everything this harsh world needs. Jesus heals our troubled souls and he makes us whole and balanced. Thank you Lord for coming into our world and becoming flesh. Thank you Jesus for living among us and teaching us. Thank you Jesus for fulfilling all our hopes and desires. Jesus you are the way, the truth, and the life.

Please continue to pray for an end of abortion. There were thousands of people at the Right to Life march in Washington D.C. this past week. These people were witnessing to their faith and justice. All people have the right to live even the babies in their mother’s wombs. The truth is abortion kills the innocent and defenseless. God bless you all. Fr. Tony

I want to thank all of you who made my birthday a joyous and memorable experience. I enjoyed the cake at the Eucharistic Day meal and all the cards sent to me. All of you are such a blessing. I am a blest man to be in Glandorf. I will remember our parishioners in my daily rosary. God bless you all. Fr. Tony

Thanks to all who made our Eucharistic Day a great one: Fr. Tony, Br. Jerry, to our wonderful St. John's Mixed Choir, The Knights of Columbus did a great job escorting as usual and all of you who came to celebrate Jesus. Thanks to Parish Council for organizing this celebration with setting up and tearing down the tables with the help of those present.

FERVORINO – When Jesus called his disciples, they came “immediately.” Parents wish their children would respond as quickly, but they don't. Children grow slowly into responsibility. It is a process like walking, not done “immediately”, but in small steps. Parenting demands patient encouragement.
